AUTHORIZATION TO REPRODUCE ARTWORK & PHOTOGRAPHS

There are legal concerns involved in using photographs and other tangible works. The reproduction of cards, designs, photographs or other tangible works requires the written consent of the author (i.e. artist, photographer, writer, composer). Ownership or possession of a copy does not give the possessor the right to reproduce the work without written consent of the author.

Photographers and authors automatically obtain copyrights on all their work and retain those rights unless transferred in writing. ADiMATiONS must have written permission from the copyright owner for the use of a photo or negative or any artwork.
